Sir,

With reference to your letter No.9559/CB dated the 20th instant informing me that the Military Bakshi may be in charge of the Military Arrangements on the 26th instant within the Court-yard of the Palace, I am desired to state that as it is likely that there will be some confusion in the arrangements and the command of the Military Units, the Chief Commandant himself or any other Military Officer - authorised by the Government may be placed in full charge of the arrangements both in the Court-yard of the Palace and the Procession route and the Parade Ground within the Government House Grounds for this function.

The Chief Commandant in his letter No.G.II.694/49 dated 23rd January 1950 has informed me that the Military Bakshi may be placed in charge of the arrangements within the Court-yard of the Palace. The Chief Commandant may be informed of the arrangements contained in para 1 supra.
